

NOVEMBER 7TH

An Important Day Throughout Human History:

November 7, 1665. First "Gazette" is published in Oxford, England. The name is taken from the price of the newspaper -- one Gazetta, a small coin used in Venice the old Russian calendar, the date of the revolution was October 25.

November 7, 1943. Joni Mitchell is born.

November 7, 1913 Nobel Prize for literature winner Albert Camus is born. In his book, Le Mythe de Sisyphe, he concluded it was not worth killing yourself when a good party was coming up.

November 7, 1974. Detroit rocker Ted Nugent wins the National Squirrel-Shooting Archery Contest by picking off a squirrel at 150 yards.

November 7, 1917. The start of the October Revolution that led to the founding of the USSR. In November 7, 1987. The party at 20 Spring Park Avenue. All of the most important historical figures of the day are there.

Be part of the Inexorable March of History.

Come to a Party

Saturday, November 7 9:30 p.m. until very late
20 Spring Park Avenue, JP

Brought to you by your favorite Agents of History:
Lee Winkelman, Ann-Patrice Hickey, Laurie Bozzi, and Liz Stern.
Phone them for directions at 524-6976.

Remember: November 7 is National Notary Public Day and the start of National Split Pea Soup Week. Take your Notary out for a bowl of soup today.

Critics are praising Another Party at 20 Spring Park Avenue

A moving affirmation of solidarity with all living things."
 —Wendy Smith, Cleveland Plain Dealer

IT WILL BLOW YOU THROUGH THE BACK WALL OF THE THEATRE.

"An extraordinary tale of obsession and madness."
 —JOE MCGINNISS

If you loved the first one, you'll love
 the sequel." — Susan Granger, WMCA RADIO

"SUBLIME"
 —J. Hoberman,
Village Voice

In the decades of isolation from the US, a stunning tapestry of styles has emerge

Those starved for provocative literate entertainment will here find an oasis"
 —Peter Travers, PEOPLE MAGAZINE

imaginative jokes, dynamic scenes and the most touching ending you could want!"
 —Lucy Keyser,
WASHINGTON TIMES

The moviegoers—critics, journalists, buffs—
 stood and cheered and wept for long moments.

He's alone, tired... and the only chance anyone has go

"It is a provocative and erudite act of feminist imagination." —Robert Orsi

"A RARE & ALMOST PERFECT EXPERIENCE. IRRESISTIBLY EXOTIC."
 —CHICAGO SUN-TIMES

"DROP-DEAD HIP"
VILLAGE VOICE

poignant

EROTIC

"A triumph of technology —and of taste."
 —DYER, BOSTON GLOBE

An off-duty cop hiding somewhere inside.

It's more than music... it's a way of life.

FILLED WITH ELEGANTLY NUANCED AND SMARTLY TURNED-OUT WORK."
 —Jay Carr, THE BOSTON GLOBE

TERRIFYING.
 RELENTLESS.
 UNSTOPPABLE.

"It is embarrassing to be reduced to tears by a robot,

Demanding!

"A good time for you and the kids, and the kid in you!" —John Eldridge

"Haunting in the ordinary humanity of people faced with t unthinkable" —Kirkus Reviews.

Having a bit of a giggle

Now the ultimate evil is about to be revealed.

captured the feelings of a generation." —People

"According to Nancy Reagan's advisor, there's never been a better time"

"A WILD, NONSTOP, FREEWHEELING ADVENTURE."
 —Kevin Thomas, LOS ANGELES TIMES

EXCLUSIVE ENGAGEMENT STARTS

August 6 9 pm

Call 524-6976 for directions

"Wild Dancing... Stimulating Conversation... Fascinating People."

Starring:

Laurie Bozzi

Ann-Patrice Hickey

Bob Lelievre

Lee Winkelman

Green eyed party animal 24 year old 5'11", 165, loyal affectionate & playful seeks woman who will make my tail wag and treat me nice. CALL EXT 4347

DO YOU HELP?
 My therapist says I need to develop my female spirit. If you're interested in male/female stuff, are a non-smoker, love-to-talk-about-life, this petite & passionate 53, sure wants to hear from you. Photo/ Phone VMV7223

ACCURATE PSYCHIC
 My accuracy rate is very high. Call me for a phone conversation apt. $10 for 15 minutes. 777-8166.

LABOR DONATED

Andrew, there's no way I'm letting you make the invitation for our open house. You'd just mess it up, Boyd.

Oh, Mr. guerrilla-theatre, class-acts, groovy, politically correct, multi-media maven, you know soooooo much more about communicating than I do. What are all our friends going to think about you bickering with me on our party invitation? They won't realize that our party is going to have tasty food, lovely music, and scintillating conversation.

I don't know how I manage to live in 70 Paul Gore Street, apartment #3 with you. Even Jamaica Plain isn't big enough for the both of us—never mind the apartment.

Promise me you will be good in front of our guests?

Yeaah, right, Mr. Lee, "only I know what font to use" Winkelman...? It's because you spent the 5 months since we moved in obsessing about the perfect invitation, that we couldn't get our open-house together until Sunday, February 2, from 12pm to 6pm.

Oh, and I suppose you think you're modelling good conversation habits by bad mouthing me like this, huh? Did you tell them they can drop in any time and stay for as long as they like?

Forget the apartment, let's start with the sink! I'm trying to fill up the kettle and I can't even find the faucet with all your dirty dishes piled around. But just to show you that I'm the better man, instead of torching your room, I'm going to calmly walk over to my phone (524-3076) and call your phone (524-2147) and handle this in a civilized fashion.

...ah...on the advice of my attorney, I have nothing further to say at this time.